

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE

April 17, 18, 19

The Medford Public Library, StandWithUs and Bridge to Jerusalem are partnering to honor Yom Hashoah. Special guest presenter Nili Alon Amit, PhD, of StandWithUs

All events are at the Medford Library

April 17-18, large meeting room.

April 19, Carpenter room.

April 18 12-1:30pm

Jewish Life before the War: Presentation, discussion, and art/writing workshop; Featuring the photography and poetry of Alfred Benjamin – showcasing life in Hamburg in the 1930s. 8th grade-adult

April 19 10am-12:00pm

Children's Resistance in the Holocaust: Presentation (including testimony), discussion, and art/writing workshop. 6th grade -adult

April 17 4:00-6:00pm

Contemplative Memorial. Drop-in during this unconstructed time, experience the various displays and quietly remember, in your own way, the victims, survivors and living family members.

April 18 3-4:30pm

Women's Resistance in the Holocaust: Presentation, discussion, and art/writing workshop, 8th grade -adult.

April 19 12-2pm

Jewish Resistance in the Holocaust: Presentation and discussion. Film: Rosenzweig Born to Dance. 8th grade-adult.

April 17 6:30-8pm

Film: The Paper Clip Documentary that resulted from a middle school Holocaust study project. Take-home discussion guides will be available for parents. Middle school- adult

April 18 6-8:30pm

Yom Hashoa Ceremony: 1 minute of silence and commemoration. Short presentation on the Holocaust in historical context and personal family story. Film: The Strength to Tell; Discussion.

More details: www.bridge2jerusalem.net/events

Questions? bridge2jerusalem@gmail.com

Connect with SWU presenter, Nili nilia@standwithus.com